SUBJECT: Movie in the Park Draws Hundreds to North Shore

Over five hundred Miami Beach residents flocked to North Shore Park Youth Center's field on Friday, February 10th for the first in a series of "Movie in the Park" events planned for 2006. The theme of the night was "Haunted Valentine", mixing Valentine carnival games with "Haunted" bounce houses! It was a night full of music, games, food, and fun that culminated in the presentation of the animated film "The Corpse Bride".

Children played for 2 hours in haunted house-themed bounce houses while adults listened to DJ music and purchased hot dogs and sodas from the concession area. Participants took advantage of the cupid cut-out photo station to take funny valentine's pictures. They also won prizes at the carnival game booths with such games as the bean bag toss featuring artwork from "The Corpse Bride" movie. Finally, they settled into their chairs and blankets at 8pm for the movie presentation on a huge 24 X 26 ft. projection screen.
